BUMORS OF WAR ARE SUBSIDING

Greece and Bulgaria Finally Reach Agreement Over Salonika.

BULGARS LEAVE CITY.

Little Prospect of Trouble in Europe, Though it is Admitted Eventualities May Arise.

Athens, Greece, May 2.—Accord has been established between Greece and Bulgaria over the future status of Salonika, is the statement made today by Foreign Minister Coromilas, following receipt of a wireless message from a Greek warship in the Salonika harbor to the effect that the Bulgarian troops had evacuated that city.

Paris, May 2.—King Nicholas of Montenegro, it is understood, has agreed to give up Scutari.

Austria is curbing her impatience and a Vienna dispatch states that the diplomatic corps there does not look for any extensive military movement by Austria against Montenegro.

London, May 2.—The threatening attitude of Austria toward the Balkan allies and the possibility that a general European war may be the result directs attention to the present military and naval resources of the pwers.

It is scarcely conceivable that any contingency will arise to plunge all the great nations of Europe into a general war. The rulers themselves have infinnitely more to lose than to gain from such a calamity, and voluntarily will never take, together or singly, steps that would provoke a universal outburst of fleming death in Europe. But there is no denying the fact that te present situation is a serious menace to continental peace and that no one fully acquainted with that situation would be surprised at the outbreak of hostilities involving several—two at least, and perhaps three—of the six powers usually classified as "great."

The triple alliance between Germany, Austria-Hungary and Italy, the Franco-Russian alliance, and the friendly understandings between Great Britain and France and Great Britain and Italy, all exist primarily to maintain the status quo, but secondarily to checkmate one another in diplomacy or to fight one another in certain eventualities. It is important, therefore, to compare the offensive and defensive resources of these powers, with a view to estimating roughly the scale of possible operations if war broke out involving any two or more of them.

TO ATTRACT FLOOD VICTIMS.

Harrisonburg After Manufacturers and Capitalists Who Lost in Recent Disasters.

Harrisonburg, Va., May 2.—Harrisonburg is making an effort to induce some of the manufacturers and capitalists whose plants were ruined in the recent Ohio floods, to consider the matter of selecting Harrisonburg as a site on which to rebuild their establishments. The Board of Trade has appointed a committee of three to take up the matter with the Ohio manufacturers.

The Board of Trade also appointed a committee to push the matter of getting a silk mill located in Harrisonburg. From a good source it is learned that the industry is almost certainly to be located here.

It is said that the silk mill necessitates employment of several hundred boys and girls, and already the Board of Trade has advertised for boys and girls who are willing to take work.

The committee believes that the fact that the Valley of Virginia is free from the floods and cyclones that devastate the sections of the West, it will prove a drawing card in enticing the flood victims to Harrisonburg.

NEWS OF THE DAY.

The conference committee of managers of Eastern railroads in New the requests made by their conductors and trainmen for higher wages. The committee, in a reply sent to the Order of Railway Conductors and Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen, says that the present rates of wages are liberal and in many cases excessive and that the request for an increase in declined "in the interests of owners of railroad securities, in the interest of all railroad employes, in the interest of the public as a whole."

Twenty-one of the surviving officers who fought under Admiral George Dewey in the battle of Manila Bay celebrated the fifteenth anniversary of the famous naval engagement at the annual reunion and banquet of the Society of Manila Bay in Washington last night.The officers included Rear Admiral Asa Walker, who commanded the cruiser Concord, and the only survivor of Dewey's fleet, captains, gathered around the banquet table to do honor to Admiral Dewey, president of the society. Personal reminiscences of the battle were given by the diners.

Parades and massmeetings of workers and Socialist organizations yesterday in various parts of the City of New York marked the first day of May. Several thousand garment workers made up the bulk of the big parade down town. A miscellaneous division included cigarette-makers,and members of the Teddy Bear Makers' Union. More than 10,000 women were in line, all in white dresses with red sashes. A thousand or more silk mill strikers from Paterson joined the uptown parade of the Socialist organizations.

A French column, part of Colonel Mangin's forces, fought a fierce engagement April 28, at Sidiali, Morocco, with a strong body of tribesmen affiliated with the rebel El Hiba. The French troops were ambushed, but succeeded in repulsing the tribesmen after seven hours. The French lost 18 killed and 41 wounded. The rebel casualty list was very large.

Clarence Murphy, 21 years old son of a Gary, Ind., saloonkeeper, was shot and instantyl killed early yesterday morning in his father's place of business when he attempted to eject Mrs. Grace Smith, 35 years old. Mrs. Smith fled in an automobile to the home of her sister in Chicago, where she was arrested. Arthur Grayson, 37 years old, was with the woman when she was taken into custody. They were returned to Gary to be held until the inquest has been concluded. The shooting followed a quarrel between Mrs. Smith and Henry Murphy, proprietor of the saloon. Clarence Murphy ordered Mrs. Smith out of the place, and when he stepped toward her to enforce the command she drew a revolver from the folds of her dress and fired five shots, one of the bullets piercing the young man's heart. "I meant to shoot old man Murphy and not his son," Mrs. Smith told the police. "He treated me cruelly ,and I wanted to get revenge.."

Having lost Tripoli to Italy and approximately 60,000 square miles of her European possessions, a new territorial menace faces Turkey. Russia has begun a heavy troop movement to the Persian frontier and into Turkish Armenia, and the belief is gaining ground that the Russian government contemplates annexing Turkish Armenia. A note has been tendered the Turkish government from St. Petersburg proclaiming Russia's intention of taking over Turkish Armenia "unless Turkey's prosecution of Christians in Armenia ceases."

A trump card will be sprung by the government in the white slave case to be called in Chicago Monday, in which aJck Johnson, the pugilist is the defendant. Two indictments are pending against him, of which the first indictment contains nine counts. The actions are based upon evidence obtained by Stanley W. Finch, white slave commissioner, from Belle Schreiber, alleged to have been one of Johnson's common law wives. Specific allegation will be made at the trial, it is declared, that Johnson used the Schreiber woman in slave traffic in a number of cities and in Chicago in establishing houses of ill repute.

ANOTHER CHARGE AGAINST WOMEN

Alleged to Have Formulated Incendiary Scheme in London.

AFTER LUMBER YARDS

Chemist Said to Have Written Letter Instructing Militants How to Start Fires in Yards.

London, May 2.—A suffragette plot to burn all the lumber yards of London was alleged by Scotland Yard when the police early today arrested Edward G. Clayton, a well-known chemist of Richmond, and charged him with conspiracy.

The evidence against Clayton is in a letter alleged to have been written by him to Miss Annie Kenney, the militant leader, and the right bower of Mrs. Pankhurst. This letter, which listed all the London lumber yards and described a most effective method for setting them on fire with chemicals, was found among the documents confiscated when Superintendent Quinn and Scotland Yard detectives raided the King's Way headquarters of the Women's Social and Political Union two days ago. Clayton refused to make any statement.

Sidney G. Drew was arrested today and taken to Bow Street Police Court, charged with printing yesterday's issue of the Suffragette. Drew has an obscure printing office, and as there was no label on the militant publication, Scotland Yard had great difficulty in running him down.

Drew faces two charges, having violated a British law forbidding printers to issue anything without their labels, and also being in conflict with the home office's edict that any one publishing suffragette literature would be prosecuted.

SENT TO WORK ON ROADS.

Jail Birds Will Hereafter Wield Pick and Shovel on Highways.

According to the ruling of State Auditor Moore, all persons sentenced to serve jail sentences in Virginia will be put to work on roads in future. The ruling went into effect yesterday, when Herbert Willis, an inmate of the jail in this city, was turned over to a state guard. The judge of the Corporation can, in his discretion, exempt a person from road service who is sick or in any other manner incapacitated for such work. McPherson Mason, sentenced by the Corporation Court to serve 6 months for petit larceny—third offense—is sick, and by order of the judge, he was exempted, at present, from road service;as also was W.N.Shelton, who is serving a term of imprisonment.

Sixteen hundred men have been called from the jails of the counties and cities of the state.

The call for the men was issued by Major James B. Wood, superintendent of the penitentiary, who is anxious to recruit road forces in all parts of the State. The call does not include the men who are in prison awaiting trial. It deals solely with the men who have been sent to jail by the courts after conviction. The State has to pay for their board.

It is figured out that the total cost of feeding these people in the jails of the State will average more than $400 a day. On the roads the men are worth at least $1 a day. So that the state is in some $1,600 a day by working the jail prisoners on the roads, inasmuch as they are a total loss while confined in jail.

Beginning yesterday, when some 500 additional convicts were put on the roads from the penitentiary, with the 1,000 or more already there, the total road force in the state is about 3,000, and it is agreed that these men can build some roads in the course of a year.

INFANT PICKPOCKET.

Innocently Gives Fright to Woman in Crowd.

Richmond, Va., May 2.—"Help!" Above the din occasioned by passing stret cars, heavily-laden trucks and honking auto horns, rose a shrill feminine voice at 4:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon at Seventh and Broad streets.

"Help!" the cry then ended in a gurgle. The woman from whose throat it had proceeded had shouted before she looked. She had felt a tug at her handbag, during the afternoon promenade, and her mind immediately ran to pickpockets, and purse-snatchers. When she turned around to annihilate the thief, she found herself looking into the beautiful eyes of—a baby.

The little tot was toddling along hand in hand with its mother, who was engrossed in the window displays. The bright metal with which the woman's handbag was decorated attracted its baby eyes, and it reached for the object which delighted it. It seized the strap and held on valiantly as its preoccupied mother walked slowly along. Only when the shrill scream for help rent the air did the mother turn. She apologized to the owner of the bag for her baby's attempt at purse-snatching, and both women laughed heartily at the incident.

A policeman who had hastened to the spot saw that his services were not needed, and he passed by.

BIG SHAKE-UP IN CIVIL SERVICE

Democratic Head of Board is Repudiated in the Senate.

TO USE SEARCHLIGHT.

Reek and Riot in Politics Likely to be Shown if Investigation Into the System is Made.

Washington, May 2.—A big shake-up in the personnel of the civil service commission is one of the possibilities of the threatened investigation by the Senate Civil Service Committe into alleged abuses and corruption in the administration of the civil service law.

Senators who are insisting on probe of the civil service system in the debate on the Senate floor yesterday did not conceal their belief that the Civil Service Commission had failed to stand rigidly against partisanship in the administration of the law.

General John C. Black, although a veteran Democrat, long head of the commission, was practically repudiated as a Democrat by senators of his own party , including Senator Kern, Democratic leader.

No question is now entertained that the Civil Service Committe will make a thorough investigation. It will probably get under way in a short time. In view of all the charges made against the Civil Service administration by Senators Overman, Pomerene and others on the Democratic side, it will be impossible to stop short of a real inquiry, and more than that, a real effort to strengthen the laws and the administration of the civil service.

Many Democrats in Congress are hostile to the civil service, and would like to revert to the old spoils system. But the inevitable effect of such an inquiry as proposed will be to tend to make the civil service administration more strict.

If the charges against the civil service are proven, if it is shown that there has been a reek and riot of politics and partisanship and favoritism in the administration of the law, then it is almost inevitable that a shake-up in the commission will follow. General Black's official head will be in jeopardy.

NEGRO WILL DIE MAY 16.

Alfred Wright, Colored Will go to Death Chair For Assault.

Richmond, Va., May 2. — Alfred Wright, the Appomattox negro, who is to die May 16, has been removed from the city jail to the penitentiary, being placed in the detention cell till the morning of the day on which he will be ushered into eternity.

Wright is the man who about a year ago committed an offense on a white woman living in the county of Appomattox. She was on her way to the village to dispose of butter and eggs when she was attacked and mistreated.

The negro was arrested after a chase, and the infuriated people of that county were barely restrained from a swift visitation of punishment. Judge Hundley held a special term of the court. The man was indicted and tried and convicted.

The Supreme Court refused to interfere, and on a second attempt a writ of error was issued in his behalf. When that was argued, however, the appellate court dismissed the petition. Prior to the granting of the writ of error the negro had made a full and complete confession. This he afterwards sought to repudiate.

The man was recently resentenced by the Court of Appomattox.

TRINITY'S CLOSING SERVICE.

Anniversary M[illegible]ght To a [illegible]

Dr. W. R. Wedderspoon, pastor of the Foundry Methodist Episcopal Church, Washington, will preach at Trinity M. E. Church tonight. Dr. Wedderspoon is a very popular preacher and is in great demand as a lecturer.

This is the last of the services, celebrating the 139 anniversary of Trinity Chruch. The sermons have all been very profitable.

Last night Dr. C. L. Mead, pastor of the First Methodist Episcopal Church, of Baltimore, preached from the text, "And it shall be said of Zion that this man was born in her." In the course of this sermon Dr. Mead said, "It is manhood which gives value to the world. Man is the end of all creation. The birth place of man is in the curch. Men of the purest character, men born in the image of God, have their genus in the curch. John saw it in his vision of the "Woman clothed with the sun, and the moon under her feet and on her head a crown of twelve stars." The scriptures teach it; my text suggests it What is man? asked the Psalmist. Nobody knows. Man is not the physical body. Te elephant is larger, the bird swifter. Excelled by the beasts in every physical characteristic, and yet man has dominion over them all. Man has a moral nature. He knows right from wrong. He can choose different courses of conduct. He has will, he as appreciation of the good, the true and the beautiful. The beasts cannot do so. And he can comprehend something of God, and has a capacity for eternity. We believe with Paul, "there is a natural body, and there is a spiritual body." Real manhood is in the spiritual body.

"The business of the church is to deal with souls of men and lead them into the new and divine life. This work can be done through Jesus working in the church, and co-operating with his followers on earth."

DECREES OF DIVORCE.

In the Corporation Court today final decrees were entered in the cases of Annie M. Gordon vs. Thomas H. Gordon; Edward E. Wood vs. Eunice . Wood, and Stephen Davis vs. Sarah F. Davis. The plaintiffs were granted divorces from the defendants the grounds of desertion.

COURT UPHOLDS BITING DOG.

Pulling of Tail Sufficient Provocation, Judge Decides.

Wilmington, Del., May 2.—Ifa dog's tail is pulled and it bites the person who pulled it the owner of the dog cannot be held responsible, according to a decision in the City Court yesterday when Mrs. Mary McCormick was arraigned for harboring a vicious dog. The court was informed that her dog bit a child after the latter had pullied the dog's tail. Prosecutor John Lynn informed the court that some courts had held that a dog cannot be considered vicious unless it has bitten more than one person; in other words, each dog is entitled to one bite. Judge Churchman did not agree with this but he did believe an owner cannot be held liable for a dog biting a person after the person has hurt the dog.

MANN PRACTICALLY WELL.

Executive Will be Removed to the Executive Mansion.

Richmond, Va., May 2.— Governor Mann will be removed from the Memorial Hospital to his home in the executive mansion tomorrow, if all goes well. The stitches were removed from his wound yesterday by Dr. Charles R. Robins, the surgeon, who operated upon him Monday a week ago for appendicitis, and the surgeon stated last night that the distinguished patient was now well along on the convalescent stage, with ultimate recovery just a matter of a few days.

The Governor saw a number of visitors yesterday; dictated some pressing letters to Secretary Hardy, and enjoyed hugely two broilers from the estate of Ben P. Owen as well as several glasses of Colonel Owen's Chesterfield buttermilk. He will be taken for an automobile ride Sunday and it is confidently expected that he will be able to appear in the executive offices of the capitol building the last of next week.

JAPANESE AGAIN IN A FERMENT

Say Nation May Become Unrestrainable in Certain Event.

THE SAME OLD BLUFF.

California Senate Will Pass Webb Bill—Attempts to Amend it Will be Made in the House.

Tokyo, May 2.—"Japan may become unrestrainable if the State of California fails to modify its alien land law attitude," was an sprt of a resolution adopted a mass meeting in Young Men's Hall.

The meeting was callled to consider the California question and thousands of young Japanse attended. Fiery speeches were made by a dozen or more men, one of whom declared, amid cheering that "Japan's irritation is growing."

The mass meeting has no official standing and was not attended by anybody of official connection. The resolution was not addressed to the government and the conservative newspapers paid little attenton to it.

Sacramento, May 2.—That the Federal administration, through the democrats of the California legislature and by appeals from President Wilson to Governor Johnson, will make every effort to block the Webb anti-lien land owning bill was strongly indicated here today.

With the Senate prepared to put the measure to a final vote before noon today, Secretary of State Bryan has evidently abandoned hope of preventing action in that body.

He is concentrating his efforts today on members of the assembly. In a caucus with the Senate Democrats last night, Bryan urged them to exercise extreme caution in supporting alien legislation.

Although the Webb measure is practically certain of passing the upper house today, the democrats will make a strong effort to amend it. It is expected that they will fail, and that the bill will go to the lower ouse for approval.

It was learned today that Governor Johnson approves a plan to amend the bill in the assembly to permit Japanese in the state to lease land for not more than three years.

Whether the Senate will taken any action regarding this plan today is problematical. The Assembly may also attach an emergency clause which would put the bill into effect immediately after it is signed, thus preventing the wolesale grabbing of land by Japanese during the ninety-day period which ordinarily must elapse between the time the bill is pased and the time it becomes effective.

VIRGINIAN APPOINTED.

E. K. Campbell Selected for Chief Justice of Court of Claims.

Washingthon, May 2.—Edward K. Campbell, a lawyer of Birmingham, Ala., was nominated yesterday by President Wilson to be Chief Justice of the United States Court of Claims, to succeed the late Justice Stanton J. Peelee. Mr. Campbell, who is a native of Washington county, Va., has been a lifelong friend of Representative Underwood and identified with all of the Underwood political campaigns. He headed the Underwood Marching club at the convention last year.

When the name of Mr. Campbell was first mentioned in connection with the appointment, Alabama Democrats here pointed out that he opposed instructing the Alabama delegation to vote for Wilson in the event Underwood could not be nominated. Until today it had been generally understood that he was to be an associate justice of the court and that one of the present members would be elevated to the chief justiceship.

The May meeting of the City School Board was held last night.

Phillips, who declined to be a candidate for reelection.

The report of Superintendent Sweeney for the month of April was read, which showed the schools to be in a prosperous condition.

An informal discussion of plans for public education during the coming school year followed.

1568 MEN QUALIFIED.

Only One Third of Males in Alexandria Have Paid Their Poll Taxes.

Only one third of the male population of Alexandria who are entitled to vote, have paid their poll taxes for this year and will therefore be eligible to cast their ballots in the November election. Tomorrow is the last day under the Virginia law, that poll taxes can be paid, and up to noon today only 1,568 men have qualified. The total number of males over 21 years of age in Alexandria is 4,650. City Treasurer Thomas W. Robinson will kep his office open until 1 o'clock tomorrow night in order to accommodate those who will be unable to pay their poll taxes up to that time.

The reason for the lethargy on on the part of the voters is said to be the fact that there are no important elections this year. There is very little likelihood of any contest for the governor of the state who will be elected in November. None of the city officials have any opposition and the only election will be that of member of the House of delegates from Alexandria city and county.

END OF FISHING SEASON.

Few Shad and Herring Have Made Their Way Up the Potomac This Year

The fishing season of 1913 is about to close. A few "May" shad may be caught during the next few days, but there will no such thing as a "run." Shad have remained at the high water mark since March, and the prices have kept them beyond the reach of the great majority.

What is believed to be the cause of this scarcity has often been alluded to, so far, no movement towards bringing about more satisfactory conditions has been made by Virginia or Maryalnd. Trap nets still blockade bay and intercepts most of the shad and herring which attempt to make their way to the Potmac, and other tributaries.

Fishtown has lain dormant all the spring, with no evidence whatever of animation.

Dr. Hugh M. Smith, commissioner of fisheries, points to the need of laws such as that in force in North Carolina. There only two-thirds of a stream maybe covered with nets. The remaining one-third is left to enable the fish to get up the rivers.

More than 113,000,000 shad eggs have been handled this season at the government's hatchery at Edenton, N. C., it was said. This is declared to be a record, and it is estimated that the total may run up to nearly 200,000,000 before the spawning period is over. Teh atchery is being filled to capacity, it is said.

"This remarkable take of shad eggs this year," says Dr. Smith, "is due to the fact that North Carolina has adopted such liberal and advanced laws for the protection of migratory fish, such as the shad, striped bass, herring and others. Whereas a few years ago most of the fish on their way to the spawning stretched across the waterways, to day the law requires that one-third the width of the stream be kept free of nets. This gives the fish a chance.

"At Havre de Grace, Md., where we have the largest capacity shad hatchery, we took last year less than 20,000,000 shad eggs, because there is no law protecting the fish as they come up the Susquehanna. The same is true in the Potomac and elsewhere."

MEMORIAL ALTAR.

Tribute to Memory of Brave Youth Who Was Drowned March 30.

Richmond, ay 2.—On Sunday March 30, there was unveiled in St. Andrew's chapel at Woodberry Forest School, Virginia, a handsome memorial altar, the gift of his mother, in memory of Alfred Baker Bransford, an alumnus of the school, who lost his life n a heroic but futile effrot to save his brother from drowning.

The two boys, aged, respectively, 17 and 18, the only children of Dr. and Mrs. John F. Bransford, were spending their vacation at their summer home near Richmond, Va. The younger brother, Henry, had gone into the James River to swim, but became quickly involved in the water and called to his brother for help. Instantly [illegible]d plunged in, only to be engulfed [illegible] same treacherous whirlpool [illegible] had swept his brother beyond [illegible] aid.

[illegible]aithful colored servant, himself [illegible]rd generation of his family to [illegible] the family of the two boys, made [illegible]antic effort to reach them in a boat [illegible]ch was overturned, and the river [illegible]med a third victim. Their father [illegible] been in ill health, and the shock [illegible] the tragedy so prstrated him that [illegible] died within a few weeks.

Dr. Bransford, formerly of the Uni[illegible]d States navy, is remembered as the [illegible]rgeon of the Gloucester who attend[illegible] Admiral Cervera when as prisoner [illegible] war and wounded he was received [illegible]bard J. Pierpont Morgan's con[illegible]rted pleasure yacht, formerly, the Corair.

The memorial altar is of Carrara marble, and very beautiful. It was carved in Italy with gerat care and artistic feeling. The reredos is a sculptured panel in bold relief, a fine representation of the "Last Supper," by Leonardo da Vinci, and underneath, in gold Venetian mosaic, is the inscription, "Do this in remembrance of Me."

The clergymen conducting the service of consecration were Rev. Karl M. Block, chaplain of the school; the Rev. R. S. Carter, of St. Thomas' Church, Orange, Va.; the Rev. G. Freeland Peter, Washington, D. C. The hymns sung were marked as his favorites, in Alfred's hymnal, when he was a member of the Woodberry choir of scoool boys.

West Point Saloons Close.

West Point, Va., May 2. — At 12 o'clock Wednesday, the liquor licenses being out and not renewed, the saloons closed. There was a little hilariousness around the closed places, supposedly by the very young, who look for fun from any source. There was when the sun rose yesterday morning a few streamers of crepe [illegible]m some of the doors, but [illegible] considered, the order was very good. As a good many people from the county came to town the closing day of liquor selling, it was feared there might be some disorderly, but as night drew near the country people went home, and some of the town people did the same, carrying "a little brown jug' 'in a paper bag. Some got a half-pint "just to fill the camphor bottle."

Man Saved Youth Frm Drowning After Companions Were Lost

Bristol, Va.-Tenn., May 2.—William M. Orr, living on the North Fork of the Holston river, near Glade Spring, has been awarded a hero medal and $1,000 in cash for having rescued McDonald Morriss, the 10-year-old son of W. S. Morriss, of Glade Spring, from the river. The Morriss lad, in company with Paul Gales, of Bristol, and Eddie Carroll, of Glade Spring, went to the river to see the high water. The boys launched a canoe for a ride and were carried over the mill dam. Gales and Carroll were drowned, but the Morriss boy emerged alive from the tide. Seeing him still afloat, Orr plunged into the water. He caught the boy 500 feet below the dam, and with the almost lifeless body clutched in one arm he made his way to the shore.

RIVES MARRIES AGAIN.

Scion of Virginia Family Weds New York Woman in Carson City.

Richmond, May 2.—Dispatches from Reno bring the news that Reginald Willliam Rives, formerly vice president of the Coaching Club of New York and a grandson of the late Senator William C. Rives, of Virginia, was marrried in Carson City Wednesday to Mrs. Elizabeth Struhers Taylor, of New York. Rives was divorced from Mary C. Rives last September on the ground of cruelty and desertion.

He is a cousin of Amelie Rives, the Virginia writer, and is a brother of George L. Rives, formerly corporation counsel of New York. He has long been identified with the ultra exclusive social set in New York and elsewhere.

SUED FOR DIVORCE.

Suit Delayed One Month by His Threat of Suicide.

New York, May 2.—After waiting a month to give her husband a chance to consider his threat of committing suicide, Mrs. Katherine Gittelman, a Fifth avenue milliner, applied yesterday to Justice Giergerich, in the Supreme Court, for a divorce.

Mr. Gittelman, now a resident of Hartford, Conn., where an alleged second wife lives, did not appear in court to defend his first wifes application.

When the milliner brought action a month ago Gittelman wrote to Justice Giegerich saying that if the case was brought up he would be unable to stand the disgrace and would commit suicide. The court postponed the case for a month.

The Gittelmans were married in Virginia 15 years ago and lived together, apparently happy, for 10 years, when Mr. Gittelman returned to that state and, on the grounds of desertion, obtained a divorce, subsequently remarrying.

Because the New York courts refused to recognize the Virginia decree, the first Mrs. Gittelman started her present action for divorce, naming her successor as the co-respondent.

RELEASE MINISTER.

Rev. McFarland, Formerly of Bristol, Charged With Illegal Operation, Is Free.

Pittsburg, Pa., May 2.—Rev. W. D. McFarland, formerly of Bristol, Va., the aged minister and educator, formerly principal of the Central High School, convicted of having caused the death of Elsie Dodd Coe, through having performed an illegal operation, was released from the county jail yesterday after having served ten months on a twelve months' sentence.

Rev. McFarland was met at the prison gates by his attorney, M. A. Shapiro. The two departed in an automobile, but they refused to disclose their destination.

The crime for which he was convicted was one of the most sensational ever charged against a minister in this State and caused unusual interest. Dr. McFarland was prominent here and his arrest and conviction as a resuk of the girl's dying statements created a sensation.

Rev. McFarland plans to retire to a small farm near here. During his confinement he spent nearly all his spare time reading agricultural books and journals. He was a model prisoner, the jailers declare, and this resulted in his sentence being reduced.

ANXIOUS PATIENTS.

Drank Milk From Infected Cow—Bitten by Mad Dog.

Richmond, May 2.—Varney Lindsey, 17 years old, of Star, the third person to be exposed to infection by drinking the milk from a rabid cow in Carroll county, has arrived at the state department of health to take the Pasteur treatment. The youth was visiting the family who wned the diseased animal and drank some of the questionable milk.

Josie Barnes and Claudie Montgomery, the two girls who drank some of the suspected milk, came to Richmond Tuesday and are under treatment by Dr. Fergusson, of the health department.

Another case was recorded at the department of health when Sadie Walker, 11 years old, of South Hill, reported to Dr. Fergusson for treatment. She had been bady bitten on the foot by a rabid dog, whose head, upon examination showed unmistakable marks of hydrophobia.

VIRGINIA CLUB WOMEN ELECT.

Annual Meeting Ends With Reception Given by Mrs. Goodwin.

Clifton Forge, Va.., May 2.—The Virginia Federation of Women's Clubs closed its sixth annual meeting here Wednesday and last night. The visitors were guests at a farewell reception given by Mrs. B. C. Goodwin in her home on Alleghany street.

Interest in the proceedings of the federation yesterday centered around the election of officers for the coming year, but, contrary to expectations only one change was made, and that was the selection of Mrs. E. A. Snead, of this city, for the position of secretary. All the old officers were re-elected. The principal business of the closing session was the reading of reprts from the several committees, chief among which was that of the commttee on education. Another report of interest was presented by Miss Anra Jones, of Lynchburg, on rural schools.

REPUBLICANS DISFRANCHISED THE NEGRO.

Former Congressman Dockery, of Missouri, now third assistant postmaster-general, laid bare a bit of political history which had been forgotten in these days. It concerns negro disfranchisement.

Mr. Dockery declare dthat it has Monday of the announcement of Senator Vardaman that he intends to press amendments for the repeal of the fourteenth and fifteenth amendments to the constitution giving the negro the ballot and citizenship.

Mr. Dockery declared that it had been apparently forgotten that the Republican party was the first political organization to take steps to deprive the negro of the right to vote. This was done, said the former Missouri congressman, in Washington, the capital of the nation, and it was done to oust the negro from politics in Washington City.

Prior to 1874 the people of Washington had the vote just the same as those anywhere else. They enjoyed local self-government and were represented by a city council just like the average American municipality. They had a governor instead of a mayor, but the governor had about the same functions as the mayor of any other city might have.

It happened that in 1874, however, that the negro population became so active in politics in the district that they were practically in control of the city government. They were the biggest factor in the city council; they had most of the desirable jobs and were simply in political clover.

But just as it happened in the South, it happened in Washington. The negro as a legislator and an office-holder was worse than a failure.

As a result of this investigation the act of June 20, 1874, was passed. This took the right of suffrage away from the District and restored the government of Washington to the House or Senate. The office of governor was abolished and the city council passed along. A commission composed of three members was created as an executive force but no power to legislate was vested in it.

"Back in the seventies when the Southern states were agitating the questioning of disfranchising the negroes, Republican debaters in the House", said Governor Dockery, "used to tear their hair and rage about it. I never lost an opportunity to tell them that it was their own party that had started the disfranchising business and that the start was made right here under the dome of the national capitol."

Mr. Dockery's statement, which is unanswerable, will bring to the minds of many Alexandrians now living, scenes in and around this c during reconstruction days.

Negro men, young and old, from the lower counties of Virginia and Maryland would arrive in this city a day or so preceding an election in Washington. Their expenses had been paid and on the day set apart for voting in the national capitol it was difficult to secure colored help hereabouts.

Many aged darkeys of the "Bob Ridley", "Uncle Ned," and "Old Black Joe" type, whose visions had never up to 1865 went beyond the farm, were voted in blocks by the political characters that ruled the capital city at that time.

The Republican party soon realized that while they desired to issue crow rations to the southern people, they wanted to eliminate it from their menu. Hence the action alluded to by Mr. Dockery.

NEWS OF THE DAY.

Despondent over ill health, Mrs. Louise Ghiselli, 68 years old, of 1736 Pennsylvania Avenue, Northwest, Washington cut her throat with a razor yesterday afternoon. She was taken to George Washington University hospital, where she died early last night. Coroner Nevitt issued a certificate of suicide.

The long-deferred recognition of the provisional government of China by the United States will take place at Pekin today, according to the understanding of State Depantment officials in Washington .

Officers of the steamer Dora, which plies betwen Seward and Dutch Harbor along the Altutian peninsula, 80 miles to the westward, reported on their arrival here at Seward, Alaska, yesterday that on one of their trips last summer as they put into Coal Bay, 100 miles west of Kodiak, they sighted a strange vessel of about 300 tons at anchor near the shore. The stranger put to sea under gasoline power as soon as possible after the Dora's arrival, without displaying any flag or returning answers about its identity. The Indians on shore told the Dora's crew that the strange craft was manned by Japanese, who had been taking soundings in the bay for ten days. In the event of trouble with Japan, Coal Bay would afford an ideal base for a Japanese fleet. From that point all ports in Alaska would be at their command.

Rioting occurred at East Burlington, N. J., iron mills, when 150 American workmen, under police guard, forced their way past a crowd of striking foreigners, who tried to prevent them from entering the works. The strikers had placed women, some of them with babies in their arms, in the front rank to intercept the workmen. While some of the women tried to drag their husbands out of the melee, others jeered, and in some instances struck at the policemen and deputy sheriffs, who were compelled to use their clubs on the rioters, who attempted to rush the guard line. The disorder continued until the workmen were hurried into the foundry yard.

Zapata forces dynamited a train on the Interoceanic railroad near Cascade, Mexico, yesterday, killing many and wrecking and burning the train. The train was followed by a military train, which retreated to Otumba when news of the attack reached the officer in command. After the explosion, rebels fell upon passengers, slaughtering even those who were unarmed.

Ledrow Boyd, 63 years old, a painter, at work on a building at 652 I St., Southeast, Washington, yesterday slipped and fell two stories. Boyd was unconscious when picked up and placed in the Casualty Hospital ambulance. His skull was fractured. He had not regained consciousness late last night and it was said at the hospital that he can hardly live.

THEIR CLAIM TO FAME.

Xantippe was an oratress of most amazing power,
She lectured poor old Socrates full many a weary hour,
It was her only claim to fame, her reason for renown,
And so she jawed her worser-half all up and down the town.

So, history will bear your name, if you've a lashing tongue,
If through your years of living you have endless tirades sung,
And many now are gaining fame in just this self-same way,
And earn their salt bu cursing out their neighbors day by day.

They stand upon the corners and they tell you how the land
Is getting worse and going to the dogs to beat the band,
They tell you that the men who run the nation and the State,
Are merely crooks and grafters and deserve a prison fate.

Perhaps it is the only way these folks can gain renown,
And they are ever with us in each village and each town,
And just like old Xantippe, they are trying hard to win
A place among the heroes by a lot of senseless chin.

It is awfully hard to stay in the house these nice evenings. Even the moving pictures are out doors now.

The town is full of lady delegates We can't keep track of the conventions they are attending. In fact we are several conventions behind all the time, but we are glad to see the girls around.

When the shades have fallen
There's no use in staying home,
Just take a nickle in your hand
And seek the Airdome.

It will make you laugh. The Deacon's Second Wife. Young People's Building 8 P. M., May 6th. 25 cents.

AGED WOMAN UNDER ARREST.

Crowd See Tragedy at Atlantic City Terminal.

Atlantic City, May 2.—Paying no attention to the warning cries of a crowd collected on the platform of the Pennsylvania station, Mrs. Caral Ducker, 70 years old, walked directly in front of the New York train arriving here at 8 o'clock last night. She was felled by the drive wheel of the engine and her arm falling partly across the track, was terribly crushed At the City Hospital it was found that she had also sustained several lacerations of the head and probable internal injuries.

VICTIM OF REJECTED LOVER.

Girl Fatally Shot by Man Who Ends His Own Life.

Revere, Mass., May 2.—Miss Tina Francisco, 20 years old, was shot and probably fatally wounded as she came out of her father's house yesterday by David Pishcop, a rejected lover who imemdiately committed suicide

Pishcop, armed with a shotgun and a revolver and carrying a bottle of poison, had stationed himself in an adjoining house. As the girl came down the steps of her home, he emptied both barrels of the shotgun into her breast, then drank poison and shot himself through the head.

Girl Clerks in Strike Parade.

Buffalo, N. Y., May 2.—Store clerks and girl strikers paraded the streets today, but there was no disorder, and the police detailed to guard the stores had an easy task to perform. W. F. Cotell, president o fthe strikers' organization, said that between 3,500 and 4,000 were out. He declared that the strike will be greatly extended today.

EARLY SUMMER MARKET.

Vegetables Becoming More Plentiful Strawberry Season Here.

Some fine vegetables are seen on the market now, several varieties of the ordinary sort, such as onions and radishes, being very plentiful and at their best just at present. Radishes are selling three bunches for 5 cents, and onions about the same. The new Bermuda onions, which are coming in in large quantities, sell for 40 cents the quarter peck. Fine rhubarb, very large, is now selling for 5 cents a bunch. Celery is nearly out. Salsify or oyster plant, while plentiful, is a drug on the market. Fine lettuce is on sale at 5 and 10 cents a head. Strawberries are becoming more plentiful, but prices vary, some nice ones selling as low as 15 cents a box; the best, however, bring 25 cents a box.

The market is very well supplied with meats at present, but prices are about holding their own. Pork loins have dropped 2 cents a pound, but all steaks and chops will be found the same in price as last week.

Eggs have gone down in price, the best country selling as low as 22 cents a dozen. Poultry holds its own, spring chickens bringing 25 cents a pound. Good apples are scarce and bring 60 cents a peck, and Florida oranges sell as high as 60 cents a dozen for the best.

FROG LEGS FOR FOOD.

Government Plans to Make Them Rival Bacon and Eggs as Food.

Washington, D. C., May 1.—Frogs' legs may become as ordinary a dish as bacon and eggs if the United States Bureau of Fisheries succeeds in the propagating scheme which it has just started to experiment. At the bureau's hatchery at Edenton, near the western end of Albemarle Sound, N. C., efforts are being made to discover how frogs may be propagated rapidly. There is much teritory in North Carolina, Virginia and Maryland, as well as in some other states, where, in the opinion of fish experts, frogs should thrive and become so plentiful in the course of a few years that they would become articles of common dt.

WOMEN TO PRINT PAPER.

Suffragette Will be Published in France if England Stops It.

Paris, May 1—Miss Chistabel Pankhurst, exiled daughter of the leader of the British militant suffragettes, said today that the women would publish their daily newspaper, the Suffragette, in France if the English government succeeded in suppressing it at home.

Miss Pankhurst is editor-in-chief of the Suffragette, and has directed its publication from this side of the channel ever since prosecution drove her from London. She was charged with conspiracy at the same time her mother and the Pethwick Lawrences were sent to prison.

CAPTURED AT PENCIL-POINT.

Yale Senior Holds Up Two Burglars With Silver Writing Tool.

New Haven, May 1.—Harry Wedland and Alexander Drummond, young men of Brooklyn, taken captive last night by R. L. Davisson, of Dayton, O., a Yale senior, at the point of a silver pencil, while ransacking his room in Vanderbilt Hall, on the Yale campus, were in City Court yesterday charged with burglary.

In the dim light of room the burglars thought the pencil leveled at them by Davisson was a pistol. At police headquarters, in addition to watches and a quantity of jewelry taken from the prisoners, Wedland was relieved of a loaded revolver.

The cases were continued until Saturday to give time for further inquiry by the police, who say they have evidence indicating that the men have operated at Harvard and Brown Universities.

GIRL ATTEMPTS TO ESCAPE.

Incorrigible Makes Desperate Effort to Get Aawy.

Richmond, Va., May 2.—Sadie Miller, a 17-year-old, made a desperate attempt to escape from the Virginia Home Industrial School at Bon Air Wednesday night, and was not caught until yesterday before noon. She was returned to the institution.

By means of the telephone, the girl directed a local taxicab company to send a car for her at the home. Hatless and coatless, she jumped into the car and ordered the chauffeur to take her to Norfolk. She assured him that she had ample funds. He was uncertain and drove her to Richmond to ask the advice of officials of the concern whether he should take her to Norfolk. They were dubious, and before deciding asked the girl for the fare run up by the driver from Bon Aar. She said she was penniless, but she would pay them well when she got to Norfolk, where she mother, she said, was ill.

As she was without shelter, the chauffeur took the situation into his own hands and gave the girl lodging at his home. Yesterday morning he notified the police, and she was at once returned to Bon Air.

The girl was brought to the institution from Norfolk, her home, about two weeks ago, having been committed because she was incorrigible.

ROANOKE CARS TIED UP.

Motormen and Conductors Are on a Strike.

Roanoke, Va., May 2.—At 5:30 o'clock yesterday morning the motormen and conductors employed on the Roanoke Railway and Electric Company's property in this city, went on a strike, and last night not a street car in the city was moving.

Although no notice of the time for the walkout was given, the company operated all of its cars throughout the day, using the non-union men who were already in its employ and additional men taken on yesterday. While the cars were operated through the day, the company issued notice that as a precautionary measure they would not be run after dark, and at 7 o'clock they were taken off.

There has been no disorder and indications point to an orderly strike. The men are doing everything possible to induce the people to aid them by refusing to use the cars. To a great extent the union men in other organizations are "walking."
